

Distinguished Alumni of the Year
2010

(President Spaniolo, Dr. and Mrs. Dan Himarios, Greg Barron)

Dean on the College of Business, Dr. Dan Himarios elected Greg Barron as the Distinguished Alumni of 2010 at the annual Alumni Gala in October of 2010. Greg was chosen for his dedication to the university as a contributor and a member of the Deans Advisory Council to the College of Business, his participation in international stewardship and missions and his success in the local business community.

A 1991 graduate of the College of Business, Greg earned his BBA in Finance and then went on to form The Barron Companies, Inc. Greg was joined by the International Distinguished Alumni, Nasser Ahmed Lozi, Chief of the Royal Hashemite Court for King Abdullah II of Jordan.